ABOUT THE ARTIST

KRISTEL STANLEY is a Canadian digital and hand-drawn artist. Kristel started her artistic journey as a youngster, but only recently devoted enough time to her practice to be able to make something of it.

She is most well-known for her Cosmic Hug and Death to Life pieces. For these, and indeed her full collection, Kristel incorporates story-telling and life lessons into her art pieces. Kristel has walked a hard road, leaving her Christian faith as a teenager, only to return to a belief in a Supreme Creator. Kristel is still a broken human that battles with herself daily, but she lives in a state of constant self-improvement & reflection. Her artwork is inspired by her continuous growth and journey.

THE CONCEPT

MEANING

When all else fails, when people hurt me when I'm sick and hurt; the One who hung the stars, Holds me. Like a parent loves their child, So does the Creator Love ME. And the CREATOR LOVES YOU!!

MEDIUMS

I use pencil and paper to begin
I compile my ideas into one image, using pencil and paper, to begin with. (the image that I often receive in dreams.) Then I sketch a couple of rough drafts until I'm happy with my concept. The final drafts are translated into digital files with water or acrylic paints or a mix of techniques.

TECHNIQUE

There are no formal techniques involved as I do not have formal art training.

The influence comes from the image in my mind, then I search for sketchable images that I fashion and combine to make up the completed image that I saw in my mind.

ARTIST STATEMENT

My art is a raw and in depth look at my personal battles, how I processed the concern or issue at hand, and the resources that I used during my healing process & self discovery. All of this, in hopes that my stories & journey can help others who are also facing the same struggle.

MY INSPIRATION

My inspiration comes from my personal struggles & growth - Nothing less, but there is MORE.... I fully believe that my inspiration is encouraged by Spiritual Forces that conspire to move music, podcasts, & other media into my path that supports my growth & lessons.

INTENT

To connect with others who may be struggling with similar issues & help them know they are not alone and there are other options & ways to live and heal.... Purpose - ...& help them know they are not alone and there are other options & ways to live and heal.

THE AUDIENCE

All people of all ages & genders who may be facing burnout, loss of joy, refocus of lifestyle & priorities, and anyone who may be trying to reconcile Faith with life & science.
